The Launch of Luto Project

WRITTEN BY MA. FERDELYN COUTINHO, LPT

It is the main goal of the Don Honorion Ventura State University through its Extension Services Office to implement projects and programs to help communities who are indeed desirous for development and innovation. As part of the extension program of the College of Hospitality Management in collaboration of the CHTM Faculty, Parents Teacher Organization (PTO), College of Hospitality Management - Student Council headed by the Governor Ms. Kaycee Dela Fuente, Hospitality Management Society and ATOMS). It is timely then to share our services and love to our adopted community which is Barangay San Vicente of Bacolor, Pampanga under the Extension for the Greater Benefit Community Programs of DHVSU Extension Office. December 17, 2019, launched the LUTO Project.

The Preparation

Project Entitled: Livelihood program for Unemployed through Teaching and Opportunity (LUTO) was conceptualized after receiving a request letter from the Punong Barangay of San Vicente, Bacolor Hon. Marietta B. Vitug (above right) asking our expertise to train and help the local community see possible livelihood program/training to later on be their source of income. CHM Extensor Coordinator Ma. Ferdelyn M. Coutinho, coordinated with the Barangay Council and the 4P's Leader Mrs. Lady Liangco (below).

-Martin Luther

CHM Faculty were so generous enough to share the time and money to prepare a Noche Buena Packages for the chosen community.

PROJECT ORIENTATION AND SELECTION OF TRAINING PARTICIPANTS

CHTM Family conducted the Preliminary Activity which is the Orientation and Selection of the participants for the Project Entitled: Livelihood program for Unemployed through Teaching and Opportunity (LUTO). The orientation was led by Mrs. Ma. Ferdelyn M. Coutinho, the CHM extension coordination. She presented the objective of the Project, schedule of the activities and trainings and also introduced the faculty trainers.
