mo, Prof. Lourdes Cruz, and Mrs. Arnelia Mandap, respectively.

Seminar-Workshop in Filipino Journalism was the focus of the afternoon session spearheaded by the COE Filipino teachers and students. Dr. Chona Navarro, Mrs. Dorisa Garcia, Mrs. Eloisa Mendoza, and Mr. Rogelio Pacatcatin discussed pagsulat ng balita, balitang pampalakasan, editorial at lathalaing, respectively. The BSED Filipino majors also assisted and participated in the conduct of this seminar-workshop.

The seminar-workshop continued on November 23, ICT for Teachers' Use was conducted by Mathematics teachers and BSED-Math students while the Utilization and Production of Instructional Materials was facilitated by Professional Education teachers and Bachelor of Elementary Education Pre-school students.

Spreadsheet application, particularly Microsoft Excel, was the focus area in ICT in order to help teachers organize and analyze students' records. This was discussed by Ms. Josephine Luz S. de Leon and Mr. Robin Dimla, while Ms. Anna Liza Nicdao, Mrs. Florenda Ibasco, Mr. Reymond Fajardo, Mrs. Janice Martinez, and Mrs. Dynah Soriano together with the selected BSED math students assisted the participants during the simultaneous hands-on application.

Puppet making and puppet shows, instructional games and clay-making were the highlight of the Seminar-workshop in the Production and Utilization of Instructional Materials which was facilitated by Dr. Vicky Pineda and Mrs. Rose Lynn Villanueva. Mrs. Carla Maijago and Mrs. Belisa Bognot, together with the BEED-Preschool students assisted and participated on the different activities during the discussion. This was already the second part of providing professional training in the production and utilization of instructional materials; the first was given last year.

A closing program followed to conclude the two-day seminar workshop in four different fields of specializations. Certificates of participation, appreciation and recognition were awarded to the participants, facilitators and speakers, respectively. A certificate of appreciation to the Rotary Club of Villa de Bacolor was also awarded for its generous support of the projects of the COE Extension Services Unit.

"BES is very fortunate to be the neighbor of Don Honorio Ventura Technological State University and be able to receive these different trainings which are very timely and needed by our students and teachers," Marin said.

Also, Mrs. Marin expressed her gratitude to the whole university and referred to it as a blessing to be served by the University through the College of Education. "BES is very fortunate to be the neighbor of Don Honorio Ventura Technological State University and be able to receive these different trainings which are very timely and needed by our students and teachers," Marin said.

The COE extension unit is chaired by Ms. Josephine Luz S. de Leon as the over-all organizer of the event together with Dr. Nemesio Tiongson and Mrs. Dorisa Garcia.
