

3rd Research Colloquium
College of Business Studies
(By: Jocelyn Y. Arrozal)

It was still a fortunate time for the College of Business Studies that they were able to hold their 3rd Research Colloquium face to face on March 10, 2020 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the University Hostel. It was also a well attended event.

Research professionals such as the RDSO Director and Center Managers as well as the Research Coordinators of different units in the university joined the program and provided relevant insights to enhance further the students' researches. Prof. Luisito Reyes conveyed an inspirational Welcome Address while Prof. Rowina Twano delivered the Statement of Purpose for the event.

A total of ten completed research studies were presented. Below is the list of research studies that were presented. All researches are geared towards product development which could open business opportunities later on.

1. Mung Bean Shampoo
2. Carrot Toothpaste
3. Ginger and Lemon Grass Ointment
4. Jackfruit Seeds Choco Drink
5. The Development and Feasibility of Coconut Husk Based Charcoal
6. Aloe Vera Leave On Conditioner
7. The Feasibility of Using talahib as key ingredient in Making Liquid Hand Soap
8. Alugbati Liptint
9. Maize Wine
10. Corn Tissue

The people involved in the event

Report Prepared by:

Jocelyn Y. Arrozal
Technical Writer, RDSO

