

“Publication to Reputable Journals” Webinar
(By: Jocelyn Y. Arrozal)

The Research and Development Office’s quest for excellence in the field of research thrives through the continued capability buildings/trainings it holds sporadically. Its recent pursuit on the topic entitled “Publication to Reputable Journals” was held virtually on September 7, 2020 from 8:00 a.m to 12:00 p.m. It was a splendid event because the topic was highlighted in the course of the speakers’ personal experience in research publication.

The speakers were faculty researchers from the university who have a thorough understanding in putting their own individual researches into international publications. The speakers who graced the event were:

- Dr. Yuri Walter Akiate
Professor 2
Assistant Dean, Graduate School

- Dr. Josephine Luz De Leon-Pineda
Associate Professor 2
Research Coordinator, College of Education

- Mr. John Paul Miranda
Research Coordinator, DHVSU Mexico

- Engr. Anthony Tolentino
Manager, Intellectual Property Office

The program was also graced by the presence and contribution of the administrators in the RDSO. The event was opened by a Welcome Address delivered by the Vice President for Research, Extension and Training Office, Engr. Ranie B. Canlas; while the Statement of Purpose was conveyed by the Director of Research and Development Services Office, Dr. Robin B. Dimla.

Over 200 participants witnessed the event and by the apparent expression of satisfaction through congratulatory comments/remarks of those who attended the program, it can be concluded that the webinar was a success.
