Sir:

The Office of Student Welfare and Formation – Health Services Unit would like to seek your approval for the "Genderized Free Flu Vaccination: Reaching Every Student" on January 27, 28, 30 and 31, 2025.

The guidelines will be as follows:

1. The beneficiaries are the enrolled students of the institution.
2. It will be on voluntary basis for those of legal age, for minors, a parent consent must be presented.
3. They will be assessed by our Health Services Unit if they are eligible for vaccination.
4. Nurse stations will be placed in each college/building.
5. The university physicians will monitor the activity.

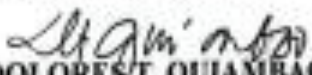

May we further request that the second year BS Nursing students and Nurse instructors who are willing to assist the vaccination be allowed to participate in the activity. This is upon the approval of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Hoping for your favorable response.

Very sincerely yours,

PLATO B. MERCADO, RPh., MATS
Director, Student Welfare and Formation

HAPPENING NOW | STAY PROTECTED, GET VACCINATED

Don Honorio Ventura State University (DHVSU) is holding a two-day campus-wide flu vaccination drive starting from January 30 to 31, with flu shots available at designated college stations from 8 AM to 5 PM.

All enrolled Honorians are eligible for the said vaccination, but those aged 17 and below must present parental consent.

The event was initiated by the Office of Student Welfare and Formation (OSWF) in collaboration with the Florence Nightingale Society and second-year BS Nursing students.
